

FOR PRESIDENT,
GENERAL WINFIELD SCOTT,
OF NEW JERSEY.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM A. GRAHAM,
OF NORTH CAROLINA.

RESOLVED, That the Whig people of Washington, conscious that the ground they tread is worthy of the concerned name it bears only so long as it is peopled by men who hold to the Union of the States as the source and fountain of the blessings of peace and order and private right of liberty and law of happiness at home and honor throughout the world; and believing that in the principles and policy of the Whig party, and in the tried patriotism of its glorious leaders, is the best safeguard of the Union from domestic discord or foreign invasion, and that the Whig party alone can save the Union, to whomsoever of these leaders it may be confided in the approaching contest.—Proceedings of a Whig meeting prior to the nomination.

NOTICE:

It is absolutely necessary that all indebtedness to the office of the Daily Telegraph, prior to the 10th of August, 1852, shall be paid forthwith. An earnest appeal is hereby made to every subscriber and advertiser to comply with this request. Nothing short of the prompt payment of such arrears will save the undersigned from still more serious losses; and he trusts that no person, however small may be his indebtedness, will disregard this notice.

THOMAS C. CONNOLLY.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26, 1852.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Washington Whig Club will be held at the Hall on Louisiana avenue at 8 o'clock on THIS EVENING, September 3d. A full attendance is earnestly requested. By order:

S. A. H. McKim, Sec'y.

The Coalition.

General Scott has been so unfortunate in his life as always to occupy a position that subjected him to the assaults and opposition of hosts of enemies. He has always had to contend with the odds largely against him, but his heart never faltered, his nerves never failed him, his presence of mind never forsook him, victory always perched upon his banner.

In his youth, when, prompted by patriotism, he enlisted in the cause of his country, and his fiery spirit infused into the ranks of his followers, he rolled back the tide of war, and made the Lion, in his own lair, roar under his indignations.

And in the autumn of his life, with a brow already wreathed with laurels, prompted by the same love of country, he led her victorious army to the capital of a foreign country, and conquered an honorable peace, in opposition to their countless armies, led on by their most distinguished generals, and in opposition to the obstacles interposed by his own government at home, who furnished that general to lead the enemy's forces against him. And when he was arrested by his own government, and, like Christopher Columbus, brought from the scene of his glory in chains to appear as a prisoner, before a tribunal composed of his inferiors in office, to answer a charge conceived in malice, still his courage did not forsake him, and he triumphed over his enemies!

But a new combination has been formed. His ancient enemy, still smarting under his meretricious castigations, and with deadly hatred ranking in his bosom, bent on vengeance, has joined his enemies at home, and with them is waging a relentless war against the veteran chieftain. The British press has joined in full chorus with the Washington Union, Evening Post, and all the allied prints of this country, reflecting views and opinions as variant as noonday and midnight, and agreeing but in this—the overthrow of the great man of the age and of the world, who has thus far triumphed over their separate individualized efforts to crush and destroy him.

The questions now presented to the citizens of the United States are: Shall Great Britain dictate to us who shall be our President, and shall British interests be subverted in contradiction to our own, which will surely be the case if Scott should be defeated?

Are our freeborn citizens of this republic ready to acquiesce in the behests of British partisans, and to place again the land of Washington, of the Adams, and of Patrick Henry in a state of colonial dependence upon Great Britain? Are they ready to close their manufactories, to quench the fires in their furnaces, to withdraw all competition to our national independence, that Great Britain may riot in wealth, and in the possession of that monopoly, extort from us her own prices for every article of her manufacture which we purchase from her?

Are our native-born citizens ready to join the ranks of these minions of despotism, that say to us, in language too plain to be misunderstood, that we need their aid? Are they willing to degrade themselves and their country by listening to the insult without giving it its proper rebuke, much less to acknowledge its truth by yielding to it their obedience? Will the sons of the Emerald Isle among our adopted fellow-citizens insult the memories of their heroic ancestors, who periled their lives and sacrificed their fortunes to be freed from an oppression more intolerable than Egyptian bondage, by bowing their necks to the yoke of John Bull, who, not satisfied to crush their liberties at home, has pursued them to these shores as fugitives, to reclaim them to his service forever?

The London Times assures us that General Pierce has its "best wishes for his success," and again comments severely upon General Scott and the principles of the Whig party, which it declares are "obnoxious!" Another leading British journal, in its advocacy of General Pierce's election, declares that GREAT BRITAIN "CAN RELY UPON HIM FOR EFFECTUAL CO-OPERATION."

In their editorials upon the subject of the Presidency, their denunciations of General Scott and their partisanship of General Pierce are equalled only by such prints as those we have named above. The coalition is as complete as was ever the coalition in Massachusetts between the Democrats and Free-soilers; but we have confidence enough in the virtue, the intelligence, the patriotism, the independence, and the Americanism of the people of this country, to believe that they will spurn this attempted interference in our national affairs; and that, in defiance of British dictation and British gold and all the appliances of royalty, they will prove themselves true to their country and her best interests, by elevating to the Presidency "the hero of a hundred battles," who has never known defeat, and who has honored himself and his country in every position in which he has been placed during a period of more than forty years in her service!

During the month of August 86,568 immigrants arrived at the port of New York.

"Ireland's Miseries—their Cause."

This is the title of a paper by Henry C. Carey in "The Plow, the Loom and the Anvil" for September. The New York Tribune has republished it in pamphlet form for general distribution. The Tribune earnestly commends it to the perusal of the friends of Scott and Graham. Though written with no reference to such service, it believes no document more pertinent and convincing has been issued during the present canvass. It is a lucid and harrowing picture of the miseries brought upon the people of Ireland by the overthrow of the protection formerly accorded by Irish Parliaments to their own manufacturing industry, and the subsequent subordination of their trade and manufactures to those of England by British legislation and British free trade. The conclusions thus reached are not original with Mr. Carey, but are based on and fortified by extracts from the writings of O'Connell, Meagher, and other eminent Irish patriots. It does seem to us impossible, Greeley continues, that men can read this record—much of it resting on facts to which Irishmen in this country can bear personal testimony—and not insist on the protection of home industry. It must produce a powerful effect, wherever it shall be disseminated.

North Carolina.

It is with pleasure we learn that the Whigs of the "Old North State" are making preparations to thoroughly organize and canvass the State. Meetings are held nightly at Raleigh, and in other important towns. Committees have been appointed, to correspond with the executive committee at Raleigh, to see that the State is thoroughly organized, and to distribute documents. A mass convention of the western counties is to be held in Iredell county on the 9th and 10th of September. A committee of three, in each of the counties of Mecklenburg, Iredell, Union, Cabarrus, Stanley, Rowan, Davie, Surry, Yadkin, Alexander, Watauga, Ashe, Gaston, Wilkes, Catawba, Lincoln, Anson, Caldwell and Burke, has been appointed, to make preparations and to engage speakers. The Raleigh Register of the 25th, in noticing the sizzling meetings in Boston says: If our friends in Massachusetts are in earnest, we can assure them they are laboring under a most unaccountable delusion. If they expect the Whigs of North Carolina to assist in defeating the nominee of the Baltimore Convention, by uniting in a factious opposition, they will be disappointed. A Webster and Graham ticket will not command 500 votes in this State.

A Tempest in a Teapot!

The Union has for many a day agonized over a great and stupendous fraud of a most wicked character! The whole history of this fraud appears to be that, a little while after the proclamation of Toombs, Stephens & Co., declaring that they could not go for Gen. Scott, some wag, to burlesque them, paraphrased their proclamation, and signed the names of Truman Smith and other well-known Whigs to it. The point in it was, that as Toombs & Co. had not acted with the Whig party for years, their reasons for not going for Scott were such as would have been given by other Democrats; and the reasons given in the article to which the name of Mr. Smith and others were attached, against voting for Pierce, were such as would be urged by the Whigs. It was no doubt designed as a joke, and laughed at as such; but the magnanimous Union does not scruple to endeavor to produce the impression that it was a prodigious attempt at deception on the part of those whose names were signed to it. Those who do not acknowledge the Union to evince an astounding degree of stupidity, must credit it with a considerable amount of dishonesty!

Our Minister at Buenos Ayres.

Mr. Penleton, the American Minister at Buenos Ayres, it appears, lately interceded with Gen. Urquiza on behalf of Dr. Alsina and family, who had been ordered to leave the country on a notice of twenty-four hours. The letter of Mr. Penleton was written in a touching style, and was so effective that Gen. Urquiza immediately revoked the sentence of banishment, and not only permitted Alsina to remain in the country, but also several others who had likewise been sentenced to banishment. Mr. P. did not intercede in his official capacity, but as a personal friend of Urquiza.—Int.

The Whigs of Baltimore.

Hugh Jenkins was last evening unanimously nominated by the Baltimore city Whig convention as their candidate for mayor; but he declined the nomination. The convention will reassemble on Monday next.

Naughty Whigs.

The Pittsburg Post (Loco) says that in Clinton county, Ohio, they have a Scott glee club, who are great manufacturers of Whig enthusiasm, and that one of their refrains has a chorus, in which all the ladies join, thus:

"D—n the Locos—
G—d 'em—day 'em!
Give them B—H!
With Scott and Graham."

Either the ladies of Clinton county do sing this refrain, or they have been slandered. Now, we know them well enough to know that there is no lady in that county who could be induced to repeat such words. The Post, of course, would not fib; but it has surely been very credulous!

Musical.

To improve the standard of musical education in this city, and to elevate the musical profession, are the purposes held in view by the originators of the musical association, whose announcement appears in this day's paper, and over which we are gratified to perceive that A. KIRCKHOFFER, esq., has been called upon to preside.

This association now comprises much of the musical talent of this community, but there is still room upon its lists for the enrolment of the names of others whose aid has not yet been offered.

We understand a part of the plan to be to give subscription concerts. In the success of these, as the association is now organized, we have the utmost confidence, and we trust the popular feeling may go along with the laudable enterprise.

Hon. Mr. Venable.

The Hon. Mr. Venable, of North Carolina, addressed the Democracy at the Universalist Church in Richmond on Tuesday night. We had not the pleasure of hearing him. We understand, however, from a Democratic friend, that he announced one undoubted truth, and that was that the "Congress of the United States is the most corrupt body of men on the face of the earth." Our informant also understood him to say that if he had two millions of dollars he could induce Congress to hang any man in that meeting.

Some of the Democratic papers speak of Mr. Pierce and Col. King. Enough of the General, eh!

General Scott.

We learn from the New York Tribune that on Tuesday afternoon General Scott arrived at New York, and proceeded to Hoboken, where he spent the night at the residence of his friend, Hon. Jas. G. King, at Highwood, North Hoboken; and early on Wednesday morning proceeded up the Hudson river. His health appears to be good, and he was in good spirits. His trip is hurried, and purposely quiet.

Mr. Webster's Departure.

Mr. Webster left this city yesterday afternoon for his home in New Hampshire, where he expects to remain for two months or longer. A gentleman who conversed with Mr. W. before his departure, assures us that he has wholly withdrawn his attention from the political incidents of the day, and that he is altogether indifferent to the subject. Mr. Webster is accompanied on his present journey by our esteemed young friend, Mr. Pratt, of the State Department, his usual companion on voyage and secretary, Mr. Lamm, being detained in this city by engagements of a private nature. Mr. Webster has our hearty good wishes for an escape from his usual autumnal catarrh, and from any other indisposition, either physical or political, that may possibly afflict him. He has yet to complete a long and a bright passage in the history of the century in which he lives. May its termination be as honorable to himself as its course has been useful, profitable, and honorable to his country.

Gov. Graham's Letter.

The letter of Gov. Graham, declining the nomination of Vice President on the Webster ticket in North Carolina, the Richmond Republican remarks, is worthy of the man, and of the great Whig cause, of which he is a bright and shining ornament. His testimony in relation to General Scott's position on the Compromise question, is honorable to himself and to that illustrious hero, and will satisfy all candid Southern Whigs, who have not prematurely and irretrievably committed themselves to an attitude of hostility to Gen. Scott, that there is no sounder man on the Compromise in the whole Union than the Whig candidate for the Presidency. Gov. Graham, the acknowledged friend from first to last of the measures of adjustment, declares that Gen. Scott was "equally zealous and more influential" than himself in supporting this "national pacification in its hour of trial."

The Massachusetts Convention met at Worcester, Massachusetts, on Wednesday, the 1st instant. The great City Hall of Worcester was filled to overflowing with enthusiastic Whigs. Nine hundred and ten votes were thrown for a candidate for governor, of which John Henry Clifford, of New Bedford, received nine hundred on the first ballot! Mr. Clifford is, at present, attorney general of the Commonwealth, and is a man of fine talents and great popularity. His associate, as candidate for lieutenant-governor, is Dr. Elisha Huntington, mayor of Lowell, who will bring much strength to the ticket. Upon the list of electors are the names of Robert C. Winthrop, Robert G. Shaw, and Amos Lawrence. The Whigs of the Old Bay State, the New York Tribune remarks, will do their duty to the full. Be sure of that. The names of Scott and Graham were received with a perfect tempest of applause. The Webster sizzle is scarcely heard of Massachusetts is set down for Old Chippewa by a plurality of twenty thousand.

The Fifth Annual Exhibition of the Maryland Institute for the promotion of the Mechanic Arts will be opened in the city of Baltimore on the 4th of October, 1852, in the splendid new Hall, which is the largest exhibition building in the United States.

To this exhibition the manufacturers, mechanics, artists, inventors, and all others desiring to display the result of their labor, skill, ingenuity, and taste, not only in Baltimore and the State of Maryland, but in other States also, are cordially invited to contribute. Any information required will be promptly given by addressing the Actuary of the Institute, JOHN S. SELBY.

Our correspondent "Marshfield" is in error. It was John G. Whittier who wrote the poem "ICHABOD."

Hon. T. Corwin.

He acts like an honest man who shrinks from no scrutiny.

"SERALING THUNDER."—The late Democratic State Convention of Michigan gravely adopted resolutions acknowledging the liberal and judicious course of the Democrats in Congress in favor of barbarous appropriations, and condemning the course of the Whig members of Congress against such appropriations. This is a very cool appropriation of Whig thunder, and shows what folly it is to believe in political platforms.

If the river and lake States vote for General Pierce as the friend of navigation improvements—if Pennsylvania supports him because of his "protective" principles—if the South supports him because of his pro-slavery convictions—then will the competency of men for self-government be fully and fairly tested. They have all given partial evidence of the kind heretofore, but that was the first time. It is said that only a fool can be twice deceived on the same subject.

A Western editor thinks Hiram Powers, the sculptor, is a swindler, because he chiseled an unfortunate Greek girl out of a block of marble.

The first number we have seen in many weeks of that excellent paper, the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, came to hand to-day. We have mourned its absence.

When a gentleman is a gentleman he should look like a gentleman. Loudoun & Co., Browns' Marble Building, fits them up that way!

New Auction Firm.

It will be perceived by an advertisement in another column, that Messrs. A. Green and Thos. A. Scott are associated for the prosecution of the auction, commission, and house-furnishing business. They are gentlemen of great experience, and universally known in this community. No business can fail to succeed in their hands.

Mr. Charles Palmer and Mr. Thomas W. McCance were arrested at Richmond, Va., on Monday, and each put under $1,000 bail to prevent them from engaging in a duel. Mr. Palmer was also recognized in the sum of $1,000 to answer the charge of violating the law in sending a challenge to fight a duel.

There were twenty-six deaths by cholera in the city of Rochester, New York, in the three days from Friday evening to Monday at 6, p. m.

The army worm is said to be doing extensive injury in the grain fields of New Jersey.

It is time for our merchants to talk to their customers about their fall goods.

City Items.

Under the local head of this paper, a few days ago, was published a brief paragraph in relation to a controversy had before a Justice of the Peace between Francis Dodge, esq., and the Chevalier Spencer. Regarding the affair as of minor importance, and regretting that it had found its way into public notice, we determined to treat it altogether as a bagatelle, and to make but faint allusion to it. We learn, however, that in doing so we have unconsciously wounded the feelings of some of the friends of Mr. Dodge. We regret this. There is no gentleman for whom we entertain a higher degree of respect, as there is none who, in our opinion, is farther removed from the possibility of performing an unworthy or ungentlemanly act.

The want of a House of Correction, or place where small children may be sent, instead of to the jail, is felt more and more sensibly every day. Complaints are frequently made to the officers against small boys, who go about pilfering from stores and dwellings whatever they are able to carry off, and whose tender age, when they are arrested, saves them from being sent to jail, to be placed under the tuition of older and more daring thieves. The evil is a growing one, for the sin is contagious, and one bad child may ruin a dozen. Give us a place where they may be kept to themselves, and taught to be moral and useful.

Yesterday an inquest was held over the body of Richard Paine, a colored man, who fell from a boat near the Long Bridge, last Monday, and was drowned. The jury returned a verdict according with these facts.

Officers Cox and Keese yesterday arrested Thomas Harper, alias Harwood, charged with stealing a silver watch, the property of W. W. Swain, of Alexandria. He was sent to jail to await a requisition from the Governor of Virginia.

A very extensive revival of religion is now going on at the Union chapel, in the first ward of this city, in charge of the Rev. Mr. Dashiell.

Yesterday a horse belonging to Mr. A. Green, ran away with a buggy, and coming down the Avenue at a brisk rate, brought up against the curb, damaging the buggy to some extent. His owner thought he would try him in a heavier carriage, so he put him to a furniture wagon, but with the same success, for we learn that he soon smashed the wagon! Try him again!

The watch-house contained three inmates, all white, this morning, and all caged for being drunk. One appeared to care but little what was done with him, and so he was sent to the "farm." The others paid their costs and were discharged. One of them (a young gentleman) appeared to be very much afraid that his employer would know where he was. If he would long be conscious of that fact himself, he must break his flask and keep sober.

Affairs in Georgetown.

GEORGETOWN, Sept. 3—12 m. The Georgetown Whig Club, which meets this evening, at 8 o'clock, in the Council chamber, will be addressed by one or more talented young Whigs of our town. The public are invited to attend.

Several persons who have returned from the camp meeting in Fairfax, represent it as quite large. The very best order prevails, and thus far the meeting has been successful. A large number of eloquent preachers are present, among them the Rev. S. A. Roszel and J. A. Collins, of your city; William B. Edwards, of Alexandria, and Mr. Bryson and Mr. Lemon, of Georgetown.

We have conversed with a number of farmers from Maryland and Virginia, all of whom say that the storm of Saturday has done much damage to the corn crops.

Some $2,000 to $3,000 of the stock of the Corporation of Georgetown have been sold during the last two days at $1.01.

Mr. R. B. Sheekle is now laying the foundations of two large private dwellings for Messrs. R. Petit and Timothy O'Neil. These houses are to cost from $10,000 to $15,000 a piece. The number of houses erected in our town this year will be much greater than for many years previous.

One of the leading citizens of Washington county, Maryland, and who has every opportunity to learn the sentiments of the people, was in our town yesterday. He says that he does not know of a single Whig in the county who does not give his hearty support to Scott and Graham, and that he also knows quite a number of Democrats who are doing the same. He says further, that the greatest enthusiasm prevails among the party, and that the Whigs of that section were never more sanguine of carrying the State of Maryland than they are at the present time.

Large quantities of flour continue to arrive by way of the canal. The market, since yesterday's American Telegraph, has been heavy, and inclined to drop: over $4.12½ to $4.25 could not be obtained for prime standard brands.

WASHINGTON LIGHT INFANTRY. THE Committee of Arrangements announce that having been compelled to postpone the Excursion on the 10th of August, in consequence of the rain, they have chartered the commodious steamer Columbia for an Excursion down the river, on TUESDAY, the 7th of September.

The Committee trust that liberal encouragement will be given to this Excursion, and arrangements will be made to make it a pleasant trip. The fare has been reduced to 50 cents. The Company will perform some splendid promenade marches, assisted by a full orchestra band for those who may wish to engage in the dance.

An additional number of lamps will be placed on the boat, and refreshments will be furnished in abundance by a competent caterer, and at city prices. Tickets $1, admitting a lady and a gentleman, to be had at the usual places, and of the members of the Company. The boat will leave Georgetown at 2 o'clock, Riley's wharf at 3 o'clock, and will arrive at Alexandria at 6 o'clock, stopping, going and returning, at Alexandria.
